

Cambridge Technicals Information Technology Level 3: Foundation Diploma in IT

Head of Department: Mr. G Taylor

Department Information

Up to date Intel Nuc Computers specifically for Computing & ICT students. Software including the latest version of Microsoft Office, Visual Studio 2012, Construct 2, Unity, Python 3 and other software packages including Photoshop, Fireworks, Flash and Dreamweaver.

Why study this course?

Offers fantastic career paths including:

- Games Designer
- Digital Marketing Expert
- Mobile Application Designer
- Technical Support
- Web Designer

Aims of the course

To provide a good understanding of:

- Fundamentals of ICT
- Global Information
- Mobile App design
- Games Design and Prototyping
- Social Media
- Internet of things

Course outline

Cambridge Technicals from OCR is a vocational qualification in ICT at Level 3 for students aged 16+. Students will follow a specific pathway with each having a set of coursework units to choose from. These range from Mobile Design and Virtual Reality to Web Development, Game Development and even animation.

How am I assessed?

Assessment:

3 Coursework Units (60%)

2 Examined Units (40%)

Where does this course lead?

This course will allow you to go on and study Computing, ICT, Software Development, Games Design, Graphics, Web Development and will provide job opportunities in a number of areas.